MacKenzie Concludes Sale of Historic Manor Tavern

MacKenzie Retail, LLC is proud to announce the sale of Manor Tavern to a group of local restaurateurs which includes William and John Mitcherling (An Poitin Stil), Patrick Russell and Bill Irvin (Koooper's Tavern and Slainte), and businessman Jim Franzoni to revive the renowned Monkton landmark.

The Manor Tavern, located at the junction of Monkton Road and Old York Road, stands at the entrance to "My Lady's Manor", one of the most picturesque areas of Baltimore County. The iconic landmark has earned the reverence of a large and diverse following of patrons from Harford and Baltimore Counties since its humble beginnings as a dirt-floor saloon for the surrounding land gentry.

"We're thrilled at the opportunity to continue Manor Tavern's legacy," said Patrick Russell. "It's one of the last, true operating landmarks in our community, so we see this as an opportunity to preserve a bit of history for future generations as well as get back to our roots."

The storied Tavern has been renovated and expanded numerous times, and will undergo yet another transformation this time including the revival of the expansive gardens and featuring a menu to focus on locally sourced ingredients. Open throughout the renovation process, the sale of the 5.5 acre property included the two-story, 8,560 square foot main building and a separate residence. The property also features a patio for seasonal dining.

"The sale and revival of this historic landmark is a testament to the community's love of history and creativeness in keeping its landmarks alive for future generations to enjoy," said MacKenzie Senior Vice President/Principal John F. Harrington.

Harrington along with John R. Schultz and O. Bowie Arnot handled the transaction. For more information on Manor Tavern please visit <http://themanortavern.com>. For sale inquires contact John F. Harrington, John R. Schultz, O. Bowie Arnot of MacKenzie Retail, LLC at 410.821.8585.
