Joe Bradley joins MacKenzie Commercial Real Estate Services, LLC in Lutherville

MacKenzie Commercial Real Estate Services is pleased to announce that F. Joseph Bradley III, SIOR has joined MacKenzie's Lutherville office as Vice President. Specializing in the leasing and sale of commercial office and industrial buildings in Maryland, Bradley brings more than 15 years of landlord and tenant representation experience to the MacKenzie team.

"The addition of Joe to our team reflects our commitment to enhance MacKenzie's real estate services in the Baltimore marketplace. His corporate landlord representation expertise, coupled with his business acumen, showcases MacKenzie's dedication to providing our clients full service commercial real estate solutions," said President of MacKenzie Commercial Real Estate Services, LLC Robert J. Aumiller.

Bradley's extensive background includes both local and institutional landlord representation in addition to providing tenant representation services to a variety of technology firms. A member of the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR), Bradley maintains the highest level of knowledge, production, and ethics within the real estate community that is expected of SIOR members.

"Joe exemplifies the character of the MacKenzie team; professional, knowledgeable, and dedicated to excellence. His ability to leverage opportunities will provide our clients the ability to think creatively and act decisively," said CEO of MacKenzie Companies Gary T. Gill.

Based out of MacKenzie's Lutherville office, Bradley will continue to focus on the sales and leasing of commercial office and industrial space in Baltimore and Harford Counties. As an established leader in providing tenant representation services for defense contractors, his extensive knowledge of the Harford County market will prove invaluable to MacKenzie's clients, and to the growing BRAC community.

"Teaming with MacKenzie will prove to be an advantageous collaboration. Their reputation for first-in-class research, and commitment to Maryland, is a natural fit for my clients," said Bradley.
